

Name: _____

The Ballad of Mulan Summary

Mulan lived in a(n) _____ in northern _____. One day, while at her _____, she was very sad. The _____ was calling for troops. Her _____ was on every scroll, even though he was _____ and _____. Mulan decided to buy a(n) _____ and a(n) _____ at the market. She also bought a (n) _____ at the southern market and a(n) _____ at the northern market. The next morning she put on her _____ and said good-bye to her family.

By night, she camped at the _____. She thought her _____ was calling her name, but it was only the _____. In the morning, the soldiers left and by night they reached the peak of _____. Again, she heard sounds. She thought they were her _____, but they were only _____.

Mulan rode _____ miles and fought _____ battles. She was like a(n) _____ in flight. Nights were _____ and _____, but she was warm because her father was _____.

After ten years, Mulan became a(n) _____ and returned home _____ and _____. Mulan went to the _____. She was praised for her _____ and _____. She would receive a lot of _____. But she didn't want them. She only wanted to _____.
A(n) _____ escorted her.

Her _____ welcomed her. Her sister _____ herself. Her brother prepared a(n) _____ and _____ for the feast. Mulan changed into one of her favorite _____.

When Mulan appeared, her fellow soldiers were _____ and _____. They didn't know she was a(n) _____. Mulan said, "The male rabbit likes to _____ and _____, while the female rabbit prefers to _____. But in times of danger, who can tell _____ from _____?" Songs are still sung of this brave _____ who served her _____ asking _____ in return.